

LEXINGTON DAILY DIGEST

FRIDAY

Congratulations Seniors...

Eight men competed, and three won:

- Bronze: Yoshihisa Suehiro, Midori, Japan (carpets)
- Silver: Billy Watson, Edina, MN (balls and clubs)
- Gold: Vova Galchenko Agoura, CA (balls, clubs, and rings)

...and Teams!

Three teams competed:

- Bronze: Taiwan Physical Education College, Taipei, Taiwan—Ching-Ta Huang & Huang-Chin Lien (diabolos)
- Silver: The Kikyo Brothers—Takashi & Atsushi, Yokohama, Japan (clubs)
- Gold: Sharpe Brothers—Jacob & Nate, Canton, MA (diabolos)

Scores for all competitors are on the white board at the front of the gym.

The Stage Competition rules and procedures were changed this year, and Championships Director Chuck Hawley encourages feedback on the new system or better yet suggestions for the future. Email him at championships@juggle.org.

Thanks competitors, volunteers, judges, and Chuck for a great show!

People's Choice Award

Rastelli Bucks will be available today and tomorrow at the IJA Table. Vote for your festival favorite(s).

Individual Prop Champions

Thanks, Kevin Axtell for organizing!

Clubs

- 3—Stephan Brancel
- 2—Takashi Kikyo
- 1—Kyle Driggs

Boxes

- 3—David Uhr
- 2—Michael Webster
- 1—Tao Wei

Three Balls

- 3—Emmanuël Boissé Pinard
- 2—Michael Karas
- 1—Mike Sather

Devilstick(s)

- 3—Kai Kwa
- 2—Tomoyasu Tanaka
- 1—Tao Wei

Three Rings

- 2—Donald Barrett
- 1—Michael Karas

One Diabolo

- 3—Kousuke Yoshida
- 2—Chu Chuan-Ho
- 1—Lien Huang Chi

My Neck Hurts, My Back Hurts; What's With That?

Learn to breathe, stand, and move to minimize back and neck pain and lengthen the time you can juggle.

- Instructor: Barbara Feltman
- Time: Friday, 10am
- Location: Thoroughbred 1-3

For the young, strong, and flexible as well as the old, stiff, and... what was I saying, whippersnapper?